“What do you think has accomplished such great results in the past?
...except that the prayers
of godly people
intervened like an iron wall on our side.”

— Martin Luther

“If an abundance of blessed thoughts come to us when praying... make room for such thoughts, listen in silence, and under no circumstances obstruct them. The Holy Spirit himself preaches here...”

—Martin Luther, A Simple Way to Pray

“If in the midst of such thoughts the Holy Spirit begins to preach in your heart with rich, enlightening thoughts, honor him by letting go of the written scheme; be still and listen to him who can do better than you can.”

—Martin Luther, A Simple Way to Pray
